

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA POWER AGENCY

SUPPORT SERVICES PROGRAM AGREEMENT

SUPPORT SERVICES PROGRAM AGREEMENT

PREAMBLE

This Support Services Program Agreement is entered into as of the ____ day of _____, 2015 (“the Effective Date”) by and between the Northern California Power Agency, a joint powers agency of the State of California (“NCPA”) and those members of NCPA who execute this Agreement (each a “Signatory Member” and together the “Signatory Members”). NCPA and each Signatory Member are referred to individually as a “Party” and together as the “Parties.”

RECITALS

A. NCPA and its Members desire to establish a support services program by which NCPA may offer to provide certain support services to the Members from time to time. These support services may include, but are not limited to, joint purchasing, engineering services, transmission and distribution planning, power marketing and analysis, employee training, employment and human relations assistance, customer services and billing, metering and data management, power plant operations and other forms of assistance and professional services relating to the operation of a publicly owned electric utility, as related to either the generation, transmission or distribution of electricity or the wholesale or retail operation of such a utility, all within the scope of the NCPA Joint Powers Agreement (“Support Services”).

B. Particular Support Services will from time to time be offered by NCPA to those Signatory Members who choose to accept and pay for such particular Support Services. Such offers will be without any liability on the part of Members of NCPA who are not Signatory Members nor any liability on the part of Signatory Members who do not choose to become a Participating Member with respect to the particular Support Services. A Signatory Member choosing to accept and pay for a particular Support Service will become a “Participating Member” with respect to that Support Service. A Signatory Member is not required to accept any particular Support Services by reason of being a Signatory Member.

C. Support Services shall be broadly construed. Provided, however:

(1) Support Services does not include the procurement of either energy (or the attributes of energy, such as renewable energy credits) which is provided through the Market Purchase Program Agreement, Single Member Services Agreements and the Pooling Agreement.

(2) Support Services does not include procurement of natural gas which is provided through the Natural Gas Program Agreement.

(3) Support Services does not include services provided by NCPA pursuant to third phase agreements relating to generation projects or other project agreements previously or subsequently entered into by NCPA and certain of its Members.

(4) Support Services does not include any on-going services which are to be provided by NCPA to its Members through program agreements. For example, Support Services does not include any legislative and regulatory services provided through the Legislative and Regulatory Affairs Program Agreement.

D. The Signatory Members desire that NCPA negotiate and enter into agreements with third parties to provide the Support Services for the benefit of Participating Members. This Agreement does not authorize NCPA to directly provide Support Services utilizing NCPA's own staff, except in limited circumstances. Such direct provision of Support Services may be provided to one or more Members through either a Single Member Service Agreement or a Professional Services/Operating Agreement as deemed appropriate by NCPA.

E. Each Support Service will be offered by NCPA to all the Signatory Members. Those Signatory Members wishing to accept the offer with respect to a particular Support Service will execute a written confirmation for that Support Service (a "Confirmation") and thereby become a Participating Member with respect to such Support Service. The Participating Members executing a particular Confirmation will pay NCPA the cost of providing the Support Services offered by such Confirmation as detailed in the Confirmation including the cost of developing the Confirmation; Signatory Members not executing a particular Confirmation will have no obligation with respect to the Support Services provided pursuant to that Confirmation.

F. Each Signatory Member, in executing this Agreement, will provide the identity of the Designated Representatives authorized to execute Confirmations on its behalf, and agrees that, subject to such not to exceed dollar limitations as are set forth in its signature page to this Agreement (as such limitations may be amended), any Confirmations executed by such Designated Representatives are binding upon the Signatory Member without further approval by the Signatory Member's Governing Board.

G. NCPA desires to provide, and the Signatory Members desire to secure, Support Services under this Agreement in a manner that balances their operational and economic interests and the interests of other NCPA Members with the ongoing financial viability and professional responsibilities of NCPA. Accordingly, Signatory Member desire to secure Support Services under this Agreement by accepting a limited insurance based recourse against NCPA, with the option of procuring additional insurance at Signatory Members' sole expense, thereby ensuring that NCPA will substantially limit its risk for the provision of such Support Services which, in turn, allocates risks back to the Signatory Members in the event NCPA is not adequately insured.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties agree as follows:

Confirmations shall be in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit “B,” and as provided in Section 5. Each such Confirmation shall indicate that the particular Support Service will be accomplished by NCPA contracting with a named third party to provide the Support Service, which contract shall thereafter be entered into by NCPA in accordance with the NCPA Procurement Policies. NCPA’s Designated Representatives shall have the authority to execute Confirmations without the further approval of the Commission where the underlying contract with a third party is within the contracting authority of the General Manager as established by the NCPA Procurement Policies. Provided, however, that NCPA may in its sole discretion choose to selfprovide the Support Services, rather than contracting with a third party, where it is providing training, human resources assistance, assistance with NERC or other regulatory compliance, or assistance in the form of student interns to the Signatory Members.

3.2 NCPA Procurement of Support Services. NCPA agrees, upon receipt of a Confirmation executed by the Designated Representatives of one (1) or more Participating Members, to procure the Support Service specified in such Confirmation on behalf of the Participating Members. Provided, however, that NCPA may in its discretion decline to provide Support Services unless the number of Participating Members and the extent of participation is acceptable to NCPA.

NCPA shall pay all Costs incurred in providing Support Services under a particular Confirmation using funds: (a) received from Participating Members during the normal course of monthly billing of Members, with the Costs of each Confirmation itemized on the NCPA All Resources Bill; or (b) as necessary from Security Account funds for that Confirmation, if any, paid to NCPA in accordance with Section 7.2; or (c) such other sources and methods as may be agreed upon in writing by the Parties from time to time or as specified in a particular Confirmation.

Section 4. No Purchase of Energy or Natural Gas; Other Exclusions. Support Services do not include the purchase of natural gas, energy, or any attributes of energy including capacity, reliability or environmental attributes (such as credits, benefits, emissions reductions, offsets, and allowances, however titled). NCPA shall continue to buy and sell natural gas and energy, or its attributes, on behalf of its Members through other existing agreements, including the Gas Purchase Program Agreement, the Market Purchase Program Agreement, Single Member Service Agreements and the Pooling Agreement. 5.1. The Confirmation shall identify the third party who will provide the Support Services and incorporate by reference the agreement between the third party and NCPA.

5.1.2 Confirmations shall not amend the terms of this Agreement. In the event NCPA and the Participating Members desire to include a provision in a Confirmation inconsistent with this Agreement, such Confirmation shall be effective only if approved by the Governing Boards of all Participating Members and the Commission.

5.2 Dollar Not to Exceed Limitations of Confirmations. Each Confirmation shall include a “not to exceed” amount or dollar limitation, broken down by Participating Member, indicating the maximum amount that each Participating Member shall be required to pay for the Support Services provided under the Confirmation.

5.2.1 Except as provided in sections 7.4 (relating to use of Security Accounts) and 7.5 (relating to emergency additions to Security Accounts), No Participating Member shall be required to pay for Costs incurred in excess of its stated limitation on a given Confirmation, unless agreed to by the Participating Members.

5.2.2 Any Participating Member may amend its “not to exceed” amount or dollar limitation for a given Confirmation by providing written notice of the change to NCPA executed by its Designated Representatives.

5.3 Amendment of Confirmations. A Confirmation may be amended with respect to all Participating Members only in writing executed by the signatures of the Designated Representatives of NCPA and the Participating Members. Amendments relating to the “not to exceed” amount or dollar limitation of one or more Participating Members shall be accomplished as provided in subsection 5.2.2.

Section 6. Participating Member Authority to Execute Confirmations. Each Participating Member acknowledges and agrees to be bound by their respective Designated Representatives’ execution of Confirmations without further approval by the Governing Board of the Participating Member or other approvals, and agrees that such execution is in accordance with its Constitutive Documents.

Section 7. Payment Obligations; Confirmation Security Account; Invoicing.

7.1 Payment Obligations. Each Signatory Member agrees to pay NCPA each month its share of Costs specific to each Confirmation for which the Signatory Member is a Participating Member.

Such amounts shall be included by NCPA on the monthly All Resources Bill for each Signatory Member, except to the extent that a given Confirmation provides for a different invoicing mechanism.

7.2 Confirmation Security Accounts.

7.2.1 Upon issuance of any Confirmation, NCPA shall determine whether or not a Participating Member deposit to a Security Account for that Confirmation will be required in order to provide the Support Service in question. If so, the amount of the required Security Account deposit shall be noted on the Confirmation and the Participating Member or Members shall make the required deposits prior to provision of any Support Services pursuant to that Confirmation.

7.2.2 Periodically, and at least quarterly, NCPA shall review and revise its determination of the security necessary for a particular Confirmation and whether each Participating Member has a sufficient balance in the Security Account for that Confirmation.

To the extent that any Participating Member's balance in the Security Account for the Confirmation is greater than one hundred and ten (110%) percent of the amount required, NCPA shall credit such amount as soon as practicable to the Participating Member's next following All Resource Bill. To the extent that any Participating Member's balance in the Security Account for the Confirmation is less than ninety (90%) percent of the amount required, NCPA shall add such amount as soon as practicable to the Participating Member's next following All Resource Bill, or as necessary, to a special invoice to the Participating Member.

7.3 Security Account in Addition to Other Security Accounts. Any required deposits into a Security Account for a Confirmation pursuant to this Agreement shall be separate from, and in addition to, any security accounts maintained pursuant to other agreements between NCPA and its Members, including but not limited to the Market Purchase Program Agreement, Single Member Services Agreement and the Gas Purchase Program Agreement. Each Security Account for a Confirmation shall be separate from, and in addition to, any Security Account for a different Confirmation.

7.4 Use of Security Account Funds. Security Account funds shall be segregated by Confirmation. NCPA may use any and all funds deposited into the Security Account for a particular Confirmation to pay any Costs it incurs in providing Support Services pursuant to that Confirmation, including making payments to counterparties under any agreement, or for termination payments, requests for assurances by third parties, credit support, payment of claims and related expenses under a Confirmation. Such use shall be without regard to any individual Participating Member's balance in the Security Account or its proportionate share of Confirmation Costs and irrespective of whether NCPA has issued an All Resources Bill or invoice for such costs to the Participating Members or whether a Participating Member has made timely payments of All Resources Bills or invoices.

If funds deposited into the Security Account are used by NCPA to pay any Costs it incurs with respect to a particular Confirmation, NCPA will maintain a detailed accounting of each Participating Member's shares of funds withdrawn from the Security Account or letter of credit, and upon the collection of all or a part of such withdrawn funds from the applicable Participating Member or Members, NCPA will credit back to each Participating Member the funds collected in proportion to such non-defaulting Participating Member's share of funds withdrawn from the Security Account.

Funds deposited into a Security Account for a particular Confirmation shall not be used to pay the Costs incurred pursuant to a different Confirmation, nor shall any funds in other security accounts maintained by NCPA and not established pursuant to this Agreement be used.

7.5. Emergency Additions. In the event that the funds are withdrawn pursuant to Section 7.4 of this Agreement, or if the Security Account for a particular Confirmation is insufficient to allow payment of an invoice, demand, request for further assurances or claims by third parties with respect to a particular Confirmation, NCPA shall notify all Participating Members for that Confirmation and then prepare and send a special or emergency assessment to the Participating Members. Each Participating Member shall pay to NCPA such assessment when and if assessed by NCPA within ten (10) days of the invoice date of the assessment. NCPA shall maintain a detailed accounting of each Participating Member's deposits into and shares of withdrawals from the Security Account for the particular Confirmation.

7.6. Interest on Security Accounts. Monies on deposit in the Security Accounts created pursuant to this Agreement shall be invested by NCPA in accordance with the investment policy adopted by the NCPA Commission. Interest earned (or losses sustained) on the Security Accounts shall be proportionately credited to the Participating Members in accordance with each Participating Member's Security Account obligations.

7.7. Return of Funds in Security Accounts. Upon the completion of the provision of Support Services under a particular Confirmation, or upon a permitted withdrawal of a Participating Member from a Confirmation, NCPA shall return the share of affected Security Account funds within ninety (90) days. Provided, however, that NCPA shall, in its sole discretion, as determined by the General Manager, estimate the then outstanding liabilities of the Participating Members including any estimated contingent liabilities and shall retain all such funds until all such liabilities have been fully paid or otherwise satisfied in full.

Section 8. Invoicing.

8.1. Invoices. As part of the All Resources Bill or by separate special invoice, as required in the circumstances, NCPA will issue an invoice to each Signatory Member for the fixed Support Services Program Agreement costs as provided in Section 7.1 and its proportionate share of the costs of any Confirmation as to which it is a Participating Member.

8.2. Payment of Invoices. All non-emergency invoices delivered by NCPA in the normal course of billing hereunder (including the All Resources Bill) are due and payable on the date indicated on such invoice, but in any event no later than thirty (30) days following receipt thereof; provided, however, that any amount due on a day other than a Business Day may be paid on the following Business Day. NCPA may apply a Participating Member's share of an applicable Security Account to the payment of all or any portion of an invoice issued to such Participating Member, provided that application of such funds from a Security Account relating to a particular Confirmation shall not relieve the Participating Member from any late payment charges pursuant to Section 8.3. To the extent that NCPA applies funds from the Security Account to pay an amount due under an invoice, following receipt of payment of such invoice by the relevant Participating Member, NCPA shall deposit the relevant portion of the payment into the Security Account and credit such deposit to such Participating Member. Emergency invoices shall be due as indicated in Section 7.5.

8.3 Late Payments. Any amount due and timely not paid by a Signatory Member shall bear interest computed on a daily basis until paid at the lesser of (i) the per annum prime rate (or reference rate) of the Bank of America NT&SA then in effect, plus two percent (2%), or (ii) the maximum rate permitted by law.

Section 9. Settlement Data and Examination of Books and Records; Signatory Member Covenants.

9.1 Settlement Data. NCPA will make settlement data available to the Participating Members. Procedures and formats for the provision of such data will be as established by the NCPA Commission from time to time.

9.2 Records.

9.2.1 NCPA Books and Records. NCPA shall maintain any and all ledgers, books of account, invoices, vouchers, cancelled checks and other records or documents evidencing or relating to charges for the Support Services or expenditures or disbursements to the Signatory Members for a minimum of three (3) years, or for any longer period required by law, from the date of their payment.

9.2.2 Examination of Books and Records. Any Signatory Member shall have the right to examine the books and records created and maintained by NCPA pursuant to this Agreement, including but not limited to (a) those required to be kept by Section 9.2.1 and (b) those required by NCPA to be kept by any third party provider of Support Services, at any reasonable, mutually agreed upon time.

9.2.3 Ownership of Records. Except as otherwise provided in a particular Confirmation, all reports, reports, data, maps, models, charts, studies, surveys, photographs, memoranda, plans, studies, specifications, records, files, or any other documents or materials, in electronic or any other form, that NCPA prepares or obtains for a Participating Member pursuant to a Confirmation and that relate to the matters covered hereunder shall be the property of the Participating Member. NCPA hereby agrees to deliver those documents to the Participating Member upon termination of the Confirmation to which they refer. It is understood and agreed that the documents and other materials, including but not limited to those described above, prepared pursuant to this Agreement are prepared specifically for the Participating Member and are not necessarily suitable for any future or other use. Participating Member and NCPA agree that, until final approval by Participating Member, all data, plans, specifications, reports and other documents are confidential and will not be released to third parties without prior written consent of the parties to a Confirmation, except as may otherwise be required by applicable law.

9.3 Signatory Member Covenants. Each Signatory Member covenants and agrees: (i) to continue to pay or advance to NCPA, from its Revenues all payments required under this Agreement; (ii) to make payments to NCPA under this Agreement where NCPA has incurred Costs or is obligated to pay a third party with respect to a Confirmation whether or not there is an interruption in, interference with, or reduction or suspension of Support Services provided under this Agreement, such payments not being subject to any reduction, whether by offset or otherwise, and regardless of whether any dispute exists provided such interruption, interference or reduction in Support Services is caused by forces constituting an Act of God and not reasonably contemplated by the Parties; and (iii) to operate its Electric System and the business in connection therewith in an efficient manner and at reasonable cost and to maintain its Electric System in good repair, working order, and condition.

Section 10. Administration of Agreement.

10.1 General. The NCPA Commission has sole overall responsibility and authority for the administration of this Agreement. Any acts, decisions or approvals taken, made or sought by NCPA under this Agreement shall be taken, made or sought, as applicable, in accordance with NCPA's Constitutive Documents.

10.2 Withdrawal of Signatory Member. A Signatory Member may voluntarily withdraw from this Agreement at any time by providing two (2) year's advance written notice to NCPA and the other Signatory Members. A withdrawing Signatory Member shall reimburse NCPA for any and all costs resulting from the withdrawal including the legal, accounting and administrative costs of winding up and assuring the complete satisfaction and discharge of the withdrawing Signatory Member's obligations. A withdrawing Signatory Member will continue to be liable for any Costs or on-going obligations relating to a Confirmation as to which that withdrawing Signatory Member is a Participating Member, and withdrawal from any given Confirmation shall be permitted only in accordance with the terms of the particular Confirmation.

10.3 Termination of Agreement by NCPA. NCPA may terminate this Agreement at any time upon six (6) month's written notice to the Signatory Members. Any such termination shall not affect any on-going obligations of NCPA relating to Confirmations then in effect, provided that no additional Confirmations shall be offered to the Signatory Members by NCPA after the six month notice of termination has been provided to them by NCPA.

10.4 Termination by Signatory Members. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default where NCPA is the Defaulting Party, and following the applicable cure periods, one or more Signatory Members may, without limiting their other rights or remedies available under this Agreement, at law or in equity, and without constituting or resulting in a waiver, release or estoppel of any right, action or cause of action the Signatory Members may have against NCPA, terminate this Agreement in whole, subject to the provisions of Section 12.6.4. Termination by one Signatory Member shall not affect the validity of the Agreement as to other Signatory Members.

Section 11. Insurance, Defense and Indemnity Obligations

11.1 Limitation of NCPA Liability. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 11, NCPA shall not at any time be liable for any injury or damage occurring to a Participating Member or any other person or property from any cause whatsoever arising out of this Agreement or any Confirmation entered into pursuant to this Agreement.

11.2 Limited Right of Recourse. The provisions of Section 11.1 shall not apply where the injury or damage is to a Participating Member and is caused by the active negligence of NCPA or of any employee, agent or contractor of NCPA, provided, however, that any liability under this subsection is limited to the extent of the actual coverage and coverage limits of the insurance policies described in this Section 11.

11.2.1 Reimbursement of NCPA Deductibles. Notwithstanding Section 11.2 above, the applicable Participating Member agrees to reimburse NCPA, in a timely manner, for all deductibles or and/or self-insured retentions payable by NCPA for any claim, liability, or damage arising out of this Agreement or any Confirmation entered into pursuant to this Agreement.

11.3 Indemnity Obligation of Participating Members. Except as provided in Section 11.2 above, each Participating Member as to the particular Confirmation involved shall, at its sole cost and expense, indemnify and hold harmless NCPA, and its Members, and their respective officers, agents and employees (“Indemnitees”) from and against any and all liability, obligation, damages, penalties, claims, liens, costs, charges, losses and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees), which may be imposed upon, incurred by or be asserted against the Indemnitees arising out of this Agreement or any Confirmation entered into pursuant to this Agreement.

11.4 Defense Obligation of Participating Members. In the event any action or proceeding shall be brought against the Indemnitees by reason of any matter for which the Indemnitees are indemnified hereunder, the Participating Members as to the Confirmation involved shall, upon reasonable prior written notice from any of the Indemnitees, at Participating Member’s sole cost and expense, resist and defend the same with legal counsel mutually selected by Indemnitee and the Participating Member or Members, unless mutual selection of counsel is expressly prohibited by an applicable insurance policy; provided however, that neither Indemnitee nor Participating Member shall admit liability in any such matter or on behalf of the other without express written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, nor enter into any compromise or settlement of any claim for which Indemnitees are indemnified hereunder without prior express written consent. 12.3 Participation Rights Of Defaulting Signatory Member. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and until such Event of Default is cured, the Signatory Member that is the Defaulting Party shall not have the right to participate under any additional Confirmations.

12.4.1 Remedies of NCPA. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default where a Signatory Member is the Defaulting Party, without limiting its other rights or remedies available under this Agreement, at law or in equity, and without constituting or resulting in a waiver, release or estoppel of any right, action or cause of action NCPA may have against the Defaulting Party Participant, NCPA may: (i) suspend the provision of Support Services under this Agreement or any Confirmation issued pursuant to this Agreement to such Defaulting Party until the Event of Default is cured; (ii) demand that the Defaulting Party provide further assurances to compel the correction of the default, including the collection of a surcharge, or such other actions as may be necessary to produce Revenues to secure the cure of the Event of Default; and (iii) terminate this Agreement or any Confirmation as to the Defaulting Party, following the expiration of any applicable cure period pursuant to section 12.1, on ten (10) calendar days' prior written notice to the Defaulting Party.

12.4.2 Remedies of Participants. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default where NCPA is the Defaulting Party, and following the applicable cure periods pursuant to section 12.1, one or more Signatory Members may, without limiting their other rights or remedies available under this Agreement, at law or in equity, and without constituting or resulting in a waiver, release or estoppel of any right, action or cause of action they may have against NCPA, terminate this Agreement as to themselves and without affecting the validity of the Agreement as to other Signatory Members, subject to the provisions of Section 12.6.4.

12.5 Special Covenants Regarding Security Accounts. In the event that a Participating Member's balance in a required Security Account is insufficient to cover all invoices for costs incurred under this Agreement sent to such Participating Member, then, without limiting NCPA's other rights or remedies available under this Agreement, at law or in equity, such Participating Member shall cooperate in good faith with NCPA and shall cure the deficit as rapidly as possible, on an emergency basis, taking all such action as is necessary, including, but not limited to, raising rates and charges to its customers to increase its Revenues to replenish its share of the Security Accounts as provided herein, drawing on its cash-on-hand and lines of credit, obtaining further assurances by way of credit support and letters of credit, and taking all such other action as will cure the default with all due haste.

12.6 Effect of Termination or Suspension.

12.6.1 Generally. The suspension or termination of this Agreement will not terminate, waive, or otherwise discharge any ongoing or undischarged contingent liabilities or obligations arising from this Agreement until such obligations are satisfied in full, and all of the Costs incurred by NCPA in connection with such suspension or termination, including reasonable attorney fees, the fees and expenses of other experts, including auditors and accountants, other costs and expenses that NCPA is entitled to recover under this Agreement, and other reasonable and necessary costs associated with any and all of the remedies, are paid in full.

12.6.2 Suspension by NCPA. If performance of all or any portion of this Agreement is suspended by NCPA with respect to a Signatory Member in accordance with Section 12.4.1(i) such Signatory Member shall pay any and all Costs incurred by NCPA as a result of such suspension including reasonable attorney fees, the fees and expenses of other experts, including auditors and accountants, other reasonable and necessary costs associated with such suspension and any portion of the Costs that were not recovered from such Signatory Member as a result of such suspension.

12.6.3 Termination by NCPA. If this Agreement is terminated by NCPA with respect to a Signatory Member in accordance with Section 12.4.1(iii) such Signatory Member shall pay any and all Costs incurred by NCPA as a result of such termination, including reasonable attorney fees, the fees and expenses of other experts, including auditors and accountants, other reasonable and necessary costs associated with such termination and any portion of the Costs that were not, or will not be, recovered from such Signatory as a result of such termination; provided, however, if NCPA terminates this Agreement with respect to the last remaining Signatory Member, then this Agreement shall terminate.

12.6.4 Termination by Signatory Members. If this Agreement is terminated by all Signatory Members in accordance with Section 10.4, or by unanimous consent of all of the Parties hereto, then the Signatory Members shall pay to NCPA all previously unpaid Costs incurred as of the date of such termination. The Signatory Members shall indemnify NCPA for any costs incurred in connection with such termination, including reasonable attorney fees, fees and expenses of other experts, including auditors and accountants and other reasonable and necessary costs. If the Parties are unable to reach agreement as to the foregoing, then the Parties agree to submit the matter to mediation with a mutually agreed upon mediator. If the Parties are still unable to reach agreement following mediation, then the matter shall be submitted to binding arbitration subject to the rules of the American Arbitration Association, the costs of such arbitration being borne equally among the Signatory Members.

Section 13. Uncontrollable Forces.

13.1 Uncontrollable Force In General. Obligations of the Parties, other than those to pay money when due, shall be excused for so long as and to the extent that failure to perform such obligations is due to an Uncontrollable Force; provided, however, that if a Party is unable to perform due to an Uncontrollable Force, such Party shall exercise due diligence to remove such inability with reasonable dispatch. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as requiring a Party to settle any strike, lockout, or labor dispute in which it may be involved, or to accept any permit, certificate, contract, or any other service agreement or authorization necessary for the performance of this Agreement or any Confirmations issued pursuant to this Agreement which contains terms and conditions which a Party determines in its good faith judgment are unduly burdensome or otherwise unacceptable.

13.2 Each Party shall notify the others promptly, by telephone to the other Parties' operating personnel as applicable and to the parties' Designated Representatives upon becoming aware of any Uncontrollable Force which may adversely affect the performance under this Agreement or any Confirmation entered into pursuant to this Agreement. A Party shall additionally provide written notice to any affected Parties within 24 hours after providing. Each Party shall notify the others promptly, when an Uncontrollable Force has been remedied or no longer exists.

Section 14. Dispute Resolution.

15.19 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as otherwise provided in a particular Confirmation to the contrary, nothing contained in this Agreement or any Confirmation issued pursuant to this Agreement is intended by the Parties, nor shall any provision of this Agreement or any Confirmation issued pursuant to this Agreement be deemed or construed by the Parties or by any third person, to be for the benefit of any third party, nor shall any third party have any right to enforce any provision of this Agreement or any Confirmation issued pursuant to this Agreement or be entitled to damages for any breach by the Parties of any of the provisions of this Agreement or any Confirmation issued pursuant to this Agreement.
